HOW?

The week will include daily talking sessions with Robert Gonzales, sitting and moving dyad meditations, and various integration sessions to support a full bodied experience.

- The Dyad Meditation Process will help to reconnect with our divine essence and calls forth our own inner wisdom: You become your own guru!
- Inspiring morning talks with Robert help us to remember who we really are.
- Visual art, music, dance, yoga, hearth-sharing circles, journaling, silence in community etc. are some of the various integration practices facilitated by the co-trainers that offer a deep and embodied experience of the insights and wisdom received in the Dyad Meditation process.

See the daily retreat schedule on page 4.

You will receive a variety of tools that can be integrated into daily life to support a deeper intimacy in all relationships, particularly with Self. The capacity for listening, giving empathy, and expressing honestly will be cultivated and strengthened.
